

Canadian Blood Services

BLOOD
PLASMA
STEM CELLS
ORGANS & TISSUES

If you have hemochromatosis...

Regular blood donations can save or improve your health. Donating your blood with Canadian Blood Services means saving or improving the lives of patients in Canada as well.

There are many reasons to join Canada's Lifeline.
Book now at blood.ca

Individuals with hemochromatosis are encouraged to become regular blood donors.

Hereditary hemochromatosis is an inherited disorder that causes the body to absorb excess iron from the diet. Over time, the excess iron builds up in vital organs, joints and tissues where it can cause a number of debilitating and potentially fatal conditions such as liver and heart disease, diabetes, impotence and arthritis.

Learn more about screening and treatment at toomuchiron.ca